

March 9, 1899

13-9-99 DEATH OF PHIL. FAA.

Philander, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Faa, died Saturday afternoon, of inflammation of the bowels, after a week's illness. The funeral occurred from the Presbyterian church yesterday forenoon at 11:00 o'clock, Rev. J. Scott Butt conducting the ceremonies, and the remains were taken to Union cemetery for burial. He was a bright, well-behaved lad, and a general favorite with his school-mates. The pupils in Miss Roger's room were dismissed during the forenoon and marched to the church where the touching services brought tears of sorrow for the loss of their little playmate.

* "